

PERSONALIZE YOUR CANTIRO HOME

You've found the Cantiro Life Collection™ home designed for how you live and tailored to what matters most to you and your family. The next step is establishing your interior style. Beyond our professionally curated interior styles, if you're looking to further personalize the look of your home, you can Blend, Define, or Enhance your home to create the space you've been dreaming of.

BLEND

You're having a tough time deciding what Interior Style to select for your new home because you love more than one, or even them all! Blend your space by selecting different finishes from each of our Interior Style packages to create a look of your own.

With the Blend personalization you receive:

- Professional design consultation to personalize interior selections using finishes from any of the Cantiro Life Collection Interior Style packages*

DEFINE

Choosing to Define your home gives you the flexibility to make structural adjustments to your home layout for your own personal needs.

With the Define personalization you receive:

- Professional design consultation to choose from our Cantiro Life Collection Interior Style packages*
- The ability to personalize your floor plan beyond available model options
